

Programma svolto di lingua e cultura inglese Prof.^{ssa} Daniela Puddu

Libri di testo:

H. Puchta, J. Straks e P. Lewis Johns, "Get Thinking Concise", CUP (in continuità dal primo biennio come stabilito in sede di Dipartimento di Lingue)

Medaglia Cinzia, Martin Seiffarth, "Building Horizons. English for Surveyors", Loescher Editore.

Altri sussidi didattici:

"Miami Police File, The O'Neill Case" by Gina D.B. Clemens (link to the free audiobook and connected listening, reading, writing and speaking activities available on Classroom)

"Air Pollution" and "Water Pollution", free videos (link available on Classroom)

"Scooby-doo and Shaggy on the Run" (video, link available on Classroom)

"Verso le Prove Nazionali di Inglese", Eli.

General English

Revision (developed throughout the year): talking about the past: Past Simple, Present Perfect, Past Continuous, affirmative, negative and interrogative form;

Reading and exercises from the audiobook and provided by the teacher; writing a short biography about a famous woman;

Expressing obligation: must, should, ought to, have to.

- Talking about the past: events that happened and finished in a specified moment in the past, before another event or that continue to the present: Past Perfect and Present Perfect Continuous (affirmative, negative and interrogative form), time expressions: just, since, for, already, yet.

Reading and exercises from Extension Units 1 and 2 and provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

"Singer and songwriter, any advice?", P182, "8,000 birds to see-before you-die" P. 183.

Vocabulary development: idioms about fear; vocabulary about magic, imaginary creatures and weapons (provided by the teacher, available on Classroom). "Homes", Unit 49 from "English Vocabulary in Use", CUP, provided by the teacher.

- Making hypothesis and making wishes: Third Conditional for unreal conditions in the past and their possible or probable result (affirmative, negative and interrogative form); wishing for something that did not happen or was not true in the past (wish + Past Perfect).

Reading and exercises from Extension Unit 4 and provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

- Telling and reporting what people say, ask or order, with present or past reporting verb.

Reading and exercises from Extension Unit 3 and provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

- Reflexive and reciprocal pronouns, exercises provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

- Describing things and people: defining and non-defining clauses, relative pronouns.

Reading and exercises from Unit 14 and provided by the teacher (exercises from "Network 2" and provided by the teacher, available on Classroom)

- The passive form, Present Simple, Past Simple, Present Perfect, Past Perfect, Future Simple, Second Conditional (affirmative, negative and interrogative form), have/get something done.

Exercises from Unit 16 and provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

- Adjectives + to infinitive (Unit 65 from R. Murphy, English Grammar in Use, provided by the teacher, available on Classroom).

- Verbs followed by -ing or infinitive with to, to be sorry, stop, remember, forget, regret.

Exercises provided by the teacher (available on Classroom).

"Dippy the Dinosaur" (reading and comprehension, short answers; translation); "The Benefits of volunteering" (reading and comprehension, true/false/not given; translation); "Foreign Invasion of Britain" (reading and comprehension, information completion; translation) from "Verso le prove nazionali di inglese", ELi.

Technical English

Environmental challenges, "Main Environmental Concerns" P.12, "Life in Water" P. 13-14, "Life on Land" P. 15; "Non-renewable and renewable energy sources" P. 14, "Bedzed" P. 21; "Sustainability in Business" P. 24.

Videos: "Air Pollution" and "Water Pollution" (links available on Classroom).

Linking words: reason, cause, result, addition, contrast (due to, owing to, since, caused by, because of, because, although, though, while, whilst, however, furthermore, moreover, again)

Cagliari 10/06/2023

L'insegnante
Debole Paoletti